Why choose our Afrismo for Travel course?

- It prepares you to handle unexpected situations when travelling, whether cancelled flights, missed trains or other potentially stressing situations.
- It teaches phrases and expressions that will help you out of trickiest of situations, even where English is not an official language.
- It helps you communicate without fear of misunderstandings with people of people from other countries.
- It instils confidence in using English in everyday situations, such as requesting information, haggling at the market or talking to local authorities.
- It combines a “pinch” of grammar with lots of useful practice, for balanced and effective learning.
- It offers a “hands-on” approach that immediately tests you with real travel scenarios.
- It includes a free start test to place you in the group that best suits your level.
- It comes with three different levels (Beginners, Intermediate, Advanced) to meet different needs and experiences.
- Small group lessons (5-10 people) to ensure interaction, engagement and tangible progress.
- It is structured into quarterly sessions, with clear goals and timelines to obtain tangible results.
